

THE CAMBODIAN CULTURAL AND KILLING FIELDS MEMORIAL MUSEUM PRESENTS:

KHMER FILM FEST THREE FILMS ON THE CAMBODIAN SAGA

*Come view the origins of Khmer
civilization,
the struggle for survival during the Khmer Rouge occupation, and the revival and renewal of today's Cambodian society*

"THE ROMANCE OF ANGKOR WAT"

•
"THE STORY OF POL POT"

•
"A VIEW OF LIFE
IN TODAY'S CAMBODIA"

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 2006 • 6:30 - 9:15 PM

YOUNGSTON CULTURAL CENTER, 4408 DELRIDGE WAY SW SEATTLE, WA 98106

SUGGESTED DONATION: $10.00

REFRESHMENTS, KHMER ART AND CULTURAL ITEMS FOR SALE!

*All proceeds go to support the work of the Cambodian Cultural and Killing Fields Memorial Museum, the first Cambodian historical museum in the U.S., located in White Center, 9809 16th Avenue SW, Seattle, WA 98106
For more information, please call Dara Duong, (206) 730-7740*